STUART S. JANNEY III

Stuart S. Janney III was named chairman of The Jockey Club in August 2015, succeeding Ogden Mills (Dinny) Phipps. He had served as vice chairman of the organization since June 2010.

He has also served as the chairman of Bessemer Trust Company, Bessemer Trust Company, N.A., Bessemer Group, Inc., Bessemer Trust Company of Florida, and Bessemer Securities Corporation since January 1995.

In 1970, Janney graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill with a B.A., and in 1973 he received his J.D. from the University of Maryland.

From 1973 to 1976 he held several positions in the Federal government. He was a legislative assistant to U.S. Senator Charles Mathias, special assistant to the U.S. Secretary of State, and later a foreign policy assistant to U.S. Senator Howard Baker.

In 1977, he joined Niles, Barton & Wilmer, a Baltimore law firm, where he was a partner.

From 1986 to 1994 he was a managing director of Alex Brown & Sons in charge of Asset Management. He was also a director of Brown Advisory and Trust Company and Alex Brown Holdings, where his responsibilities included all investment advisory and investment partnerships.

Janney served as the chairman of The Jockey Club's Thoroughbred Safety Committee from its inception in 2008 until August 2016. Today, he still serves on the boards of the New York Racing Association, and King Ranch, Inc.

Janney has campaigned, in his name or in partnership with Phipps Stable, numerous graded stakes winners through the years, including 2013 Kentucky Derby winner Orb, Air Support, Carriage Trail, Coronado's Quest, Criminologist, Data Link, Hit it Rich, Hymn Book, Hunting, Ironicus, Inspector Lynley, On Leave, and Onus.

His parents, Stuart S. Janney Jr. and Barbara Janney, owned the champion filly Ruffian.

Mr. Janney is a trustee of Johns Hopkins Medicine, trustee emeritus of the John's Hopkins University and chairman emeritus of the Johns Hopkins Applied Physics Laboratory.

He is married with two children and resides in the Baltimore area.
