

Director

MILES HARRISON

Years' Experience: 30+

Education: Indiana University (Bloomington) Ohio State University (Columbus, School of Continuing Education.

Miles Harrison as the Director oversees the daily operations of the company, He is responsible along with the CEO to design and implement business strategies, plans and procedures. Helps to set comprehensive goals for performance and growth, reports to and supports the CEO in the establishment of company policies and culture. Participates in expansion and business strategies, and evaluates performance by analyzing and interpreting data and metrics. Working with the CEO to develop company and project budgets. Develops benchmark pricing models and project templates. Manages relationships with vendors and partners.

Certifications

- ICRA for Healthcare Construction
- Certified Project Management Professional Graduate Workshop (PMI)
- Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA)
- Master International Office Moving Institute (MIOMI) Consultant

Relevant Experience & Qualifications:

GO ENERGETICS, LLC

Director and Project Executive 2017 - Present

Company principal responsible for healthcare operations and project delivery. Hire, train and manage field teams and budgets. Working with internal project managers develop strategy and implementation plan for individual projects. Identify new business opportunities, vendor partners. Working with CEO develop market strategy for continued growth and company investment. Developed company standard operating procedures, quality control process, and project implementation strategy.

CAZADOR

Director of Field Operations 2008- 2017

Responsible for all global project delivery. Lead all project teams in the development of budgets, staffing, delivery mechanisms. Managed staff comprised of project managers, equipment planners, designers, transition planners and BMET's. Led complete multiple turnkey Initial Outfitting solutions including design, procurement and installation of all furniture, medical equipment, audio visual and resource protection. Successfully completed over 70 Healthcare projects globally with total contract value over $200 million. Supervised staff of forty-three personnel, realized at least twenty percent year over year growth from initial hiring date.

Project Solutions Group

Director of Transition Operations 2005- 2008

Responsible for all transition project delivery. Lead all project teams in the development of budgets, staffing, delivery mechanisms. Managed staff comprised of project managers, designers, transition planners. Led complete multiple turnkey Initial Outfitting solutions including design, procurement and installation of all furniture, equipment, audio visual and resource protection. Successfully completed over 50 projects with total contract value over $40 million. Clients include: Security and Exchange, ICE, US Supreme Court, USAID, FEMA, GSA and PTO.