

Morgan Reed
President
ACT | The App Association

Morgan Reed is the president of ACT | The App Association, representing thousands of app makers and connected device companies in the mobile economy. Mr. Reed is also a member of the Health and Human Services-appointed Advisory Panel on Outreach and Education (APOE) for Medicare and serves on the American Medical Association's (AMA's) Digital Medicine Payment Advisory Group (DMPAG). In these roles, he helps guide the federal government's coverage of and communications about healthcare services.

He is also part of the developer team for the Linux Router Project (LEAF) and remains an active Apple and iOS licensed developer.

Updated 2023