Genevieve Cullen

President
Electric Drive Transportation Association

Genevieve Cullen is the President of EDTA, the cross-industry trade association promoting the electrification of transportation. Prior to becoming President, she served as EDTA's Vice President and lead the organization's policy and advocacy efforts.

Genevieve has extensive public and private energy policy experience, including serving as energy counsel to two U.S. Senators and as a consultant to the Department of Energy. In her capacity as an advocate for private sector initiatives, Cullen promoted advanced technology solutions to diverse energy and environmental challenges.

A graduate of Washington College of Law and Bucknell University, Genevieve is a member of the District of Columbia bar.
