Dear Mr. Lavinsky:

Thank you for appearing before the Subcommittee on Environment on July 25, 2018, to testify at the hearing entitled "Background on Renewable Identification Numbers under the Renewable Fuel Standard."

Pursuant to the Rules of the Committee on Energy and Commerce, the hearing record remains open for ten business days to permit Members to submit additional questions for the record, which are attached. To facilitate the printing of the hearing record, please respond to these questions with a transmittal letter by the close of business on Thursday, October 4, 2018. Your responses should be mailed to Kelly Collins, Legislative Clerk, Committee on Energy and Commerce, 2125 Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, DC 20515 and e-mailed in Word format to kelly.collins@mail.house.gov.

Thank you again for your time and effort preparing and delivering testimony before the Subcommittee.

Sincerely,

John Shinkus
Chairman
Subcommittee on Environment

cc: The Honorable Paul Tonko, Ranking Member, Subcommittee on Environment

Attachment—Additional Questions for the Record

The Honorable Richard Hudson

1. Some stakeholders have expressed frustration with the transparency of the RIN market. There are concerns about what information is available to the public and when, what information is deemed confidential business information (CBI), and about who is trading in the market, among other things.
 - a. Is there a RIN market transparency issue? If so, explain at what point does the lack of transparency occur.
