

Patrick O'Loughlin
President and Chief Executive Officer,
Buckeye Power, Inc. and Ohio Rural Electric Cooperatives

Patrick O'Loughlin serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of Buckeye Power and Ohio Rural Electric Cooperatives since 2015. Pat has been with Buckeye Power since 2002 initially as Vice President, Engineering and Power Supply, adding the additional responsibilities of Chief Operating Officer in 2007. Prior to joining Buckeye Power he worked for Dayton Power & Light for approximately 19 years in various management positions with responsibility for the wholesale power business, and both power and natural gas system operations. Pat is a graduate of Miami University in Oxford, Ohio holding both a Master of Environmental Sciences degree and a BS in Engineering Physics.

About Buckeye Power, Inc. and Ohio Rural Electric Cooperatives (OREC)

Buckeye Power is a member-owned generation and transmission (G&T) cooperative supplying electric power and energy to the 25 electric distribution cooperatives that serve member-consumers in Ohio. Ohio Rural Electric Cooperatives is the trade association and statewide organization providing safety, education, communications and government relations services to the 24 electric cooperatives headquartered in Ohio.