

Tammy Tincher

Commissioner

Profile

Dedicated and experienced local government official focused on effective leadership and community engagement. Adept at building strong relationships with diverse stakeholders, including government officials, community organizations, and residents. Committed to promoting transparency and accountability. Demonstrated ability to navigate complex issues and find innovative solutions to address the needs of constituents. Passionate about fostering economic growth, improving infrastructure and enhancing the quality of life for all residents. A results oriented professional with a deep understanding of local government operations and a strong commitment to serve community.

Employment History

Manager at FoxCross Farm, Alderson, WV

2004 – 2009

Executive Director at Greenbrier Historical Society, Lewisburg, WV

2009 – 2011

Licensed Insurance Representative at State Farm Insurance, Rainelle, WV

2011 – Present

Commissioner at Greenbrier County Commission, Lewisburg, WV

2018 – Present

Education

B.S. Animal & Poultry Sciences - Virginia Tech, Blacksburg, Virginia

Courses

NACo Leadership Academy, Professional Development Academy

2021

County Leadership Institute, National Association of Counties

2022

National Association of Counties Board of Directors

Present

County Commissioner Association of West Virginia, President

Present

Details

[Redacted]

Skills

Leadership

Adaptability

Collaboration & Teamwork

Good Communication