Lori Davis

Lori Davis is the President and co-owner of RIG-CHEM, founded in 1980 as a family-owned specialty chemical manufacturer and distributor servicing the oil and gas industry. The company was purchased by Lori and her sister in 2002 and has continued to grow and expand servicing the Gulf of Mexico, US land and several international locations.

Professionally, she is an active member of the Society of Petroleum Engineers and AADE where she has assisted with various educational and social events, including the annual Gulf of Mexico Deepwater Symposium.

Community involvement is demonstrated by her support and participation in numerous organizations, charities and committees including, CASA, Wetlands Discovery Center, Nicholls State Business Advisory Board, Commissioner of Terrebonne Economic Development Authority, and was recently named the first female President of the South Central Industrial Association.

Lori is committed to the advancement of women as a founding member of the Women's Business Council Gulf Coast where she and her company have twice received Supplier of the Year, an educational scholarship to the Tuck-WBENC executive program, attended UCLA Anderson School of Management, received the WBENC STAR award and nationally recognized ATHENA, both honors are awarded to women who demonstrate professional and community leadership.
