

Martin Guzman is an Associate Research Scholar at Columbia Business School and a Professor of Economics at the University of Buenos Aires. He holds a PhD in Economics from Brown University. His research fields are Macroeconomics and Economic Development, with focus in the study of the resolution of public debt crises.

He co-chairs Columbia University Initiative for Policy Dialogue's Taskforce on Debt Restructuring and Sovereign Bankruptcy.

He is also a member of the Institute for New Economic Thinking Research Group on "Macroeconomic Efficiency and Stability" based at Columbia University, a non-resident Senior Fellow at the Centre for International Governance Innovation (Canada), and a non-resident Senior Fellow of Fiscal Policy at Espacios Abiertos (Puerto Rico).

He is the editor in chief of the Journal of Globalization and Development.

He has published extensively in leading academic journals and books and his research has been prominently featured by the international media.

Personal website