

The Puerto Rico Children's Wellbeing Index for 2019 is:

D

The values in these keys [] represent the ranking of Puerto Rico among all 50 states and Washington DC for the indicator. A ranking of 1 shows the worst condition registered for the indicator. For example, Puerto Rico ranks 1 for the indicator of "children below poverty level", this means Puerto Rico has the highest child poverty rate among all states and Washington DC.

Economy:

Children below the poverty level

「58%」

2017 [1]

Median income in families with children

「$19,257」

2017 [1]

Teenagers 16-19 years old not enrolled in school and without employment

「12%」

2017 [1]

Families with children and parents without employment

「47%」

2017 [1]

Family:

Children living in single-parent families

「62%」

2017 [1]

Child maltreatment (per every 1,000)

「9」

2017 [28]

Grandparents living with and responsible for their grandchildren under 18 years old

「35%」

2017 [32]

Households with children who receive NAP

「45%」

2017 [1]

Women 15 to 50 years old who gave birth and are without a high school diploma

「7%」

2017 [45]

Education:

Children 3 to 4 years old not enrolled in school

「41%」

2017 [50]

Children 3 to 17 years old not enrolled in school

「8%」

2017 [49]

Teenagers 16 to 19 years old not enrolled in school and without a high school diploma

「4%」

2017 [29]

Students in 4th grade with proficient and advanced academic achievement in mathematics

「0%」

2017 [1]

Student to teacher ratio

「13」

2017 [40]

High school students who did not go to class because they felt unsafe at or commuting to school

「20%」

2017 [1]

Health

Infant mortality rate (per every 1,000)

「8」

2017 [6]

Low-birth weight

「11%」

2017 [3]

Birth rate among adolescent girls between 15-19 years old (per every 1,000)

「24」

2017 [12]

Children without health insurance

「4%」

2017 [34]

Overweight students in high school

「13%」

2017 [40]

High school students who did not exercise recently

「30%」

2017 [1]

Security:

Mortality rate in teenagers 15 to 19 years old (per every 100,000)

「42」

2016 [41]

High school students who had seriously considered attempting suicide

「17%」

2017 [19]

High school students who recently consumed alcohol

「24%」

2017 [36]

Students who are victims of bullying at school

「17%」

2017 [34]

High school students in physical fights at school

「13%」

2017 [2]

High school students who recently used marijuana

「8%」

2017 [41]