

Biography of Rev. Carmen G. Cabrera

Pastor Carmen G. Cabrera was born in the city of Camuy, Puerto Rico. Studied Biology and Psychology in the University of Puerto Rico. Worked as a Science teacher in the Zanzas community where she was born and raised. She has a son and a daughter: Rafael Riquelme-Cabrera who is a Japanese professor at the University of Puerto Rico and Honorable Senator at Large of the Puerto Rico Senate, Keren L. Riquelme-Cabrera. She also has two grandsons, one of each one of her children.

Pastor Cabrera joined the League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC) on 2009 where she has found a forum to continue doing what she loves most: helping people from all backgrounds and ways of life.

In her more than 40 years of ministry, she has founded and pastored more than 10 Evangelical churches. She has been the Senior Pastor of one of the churches she founded for the past 30 years, the Evangelical Mission Jesucristo es el Señor Church in Hatillo, Puerto Rico. She is also the founder and president of Jesucristo es el Señor Christian Academy, a bilingual school from pre-kindergarten through grade 12 with an all-English curriculum including instruction in French and Japanese languages.

She is also the President & CEO of Channel 36, a local Christian TV Station located in the city of Arecibo, Puerto Rico with a focus of spreading the love she feels for the people and her desire to help the community where he lives and works. For Pastor Cabrera, God is everything and she loves Him more than her own life.
