

BIOGRAPHY

Allow me to introduce myself. My name is José A. Corcino Acevedo, better known as “Junito” Corcino. I was born on June 29, 1970; son of Antonio “Toño” Corcino Camacho and Blanca I. Acevedo González; husband, brother, father, and grandfather of a beautiful Viequense family.

I studied in the José Gautier Benítez elementary school and finished middle and high school at the Escuela Superior Germán Rieckehoff of Vieques. Currently, I am finishing a bachelor’s degree in Business Administration.

I entered the work force at the young age of 16 while still in high school, collecting vegetables and legumes in the fields of the Lujan Sector. In 1989 I started working in the health and sanitation division of the Vieques municipality. Later, I served for a short time as the chauffeur of the honorable mayor Manuela Santiago Collazo.

In 1993 I began working in the Puerto Rico Police Department, where I served for 17 years and obtained multiple recognitions. Amongst them, I was selected as Agent of the Year six times because of my work and maximum performance. I was also selected as Agent of the Month twenty times. In addition, I worked in the Fajardo team of the Maritime Unit of the United Rapid Action Forces (FURA, for its Spanish acronym). That same year the Unit was selected as the Maritime Unit of the Year, island wide.

After retiring, I began serving as a fisherman and entrepreneur, working as an assistant in a small family business.

I consider myself a connoisseur, entrepreneur, lover, and sponsor of various sports like basketball, baseball, boxing, hunting, horses, and chicken fights. I am also a hobbyist farmer and rabbit farmer.
