

"On behalf of the companies supplying the equipment essential to building and maintaining critical infrastructure, mining and energy projects, Associated Equipment Distributors (AED) strongly supports the SPEED Act and urges its passage. Permitting delays hinder investment and create enormous uncertainty, impacting the ability to complete projects in a timely manner. The SPEED Act provides much-needed NEPA reforms that will expedite project delivery and provide clarity without sacrificing environmental protections. We urge all lawmakers to support this vital piece of legislation."