

“The federal permitting process saddles businesses with a review process that delays projects, leads to unnecessary costs, and often results in frivolous litigation. The SPEED Act will bring much needed reforms to this system by modernizing and streamlining NEPA. We applaud Chairman Westerman and Rep. Golden for this bipartisan legislation and encourage Congress to swiftly pass this important bill into law.” - Brian Wild, Chief Government Relations Officer, National Association of Wholesaler-Distributors