

"The U.S. Industrial Pellet Association (USIPA), representing America's industrial wood pellet producers, is pleased to support the SPEED Act (H.R. 4776). A clear, timely, and predictable permitting process is essential to advancing sustainable forest products, renewable energy, and rural economic development. The SPEED Act provides balanced and bipartisan reforms that maintain strong environmental protections while improving transparency and efficiency, which supports continued investment and responsible growth across our sector."