

Gary Dixon

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Teamsters Local 959, Anchorage, AK, United States

Vice President, Director of Construction January 2007 - Present

- Representing Teamster members working on the North Slope of Alaska and on the Trans Alaska Pipeline
- Negotiating contracts for Teamsters Local 959 members in the construction industry.
- Directing construction business representatives with Teamsters Local 959.
- Trustee of the Teamsters Local 959 Training Trust
- Trustee of the Teamsters Local 959 Pension Trust
- Director of Local 959 staff, statewide for Secretary-Treasurer Rick Boyles
- Board member, representing Teamsters Local 959 on the Alaska Workforce Investment Board (AWIB) for the State of Alaska Department of Labor
- Vice President of Teamsters Local 959 Executive Board

United Freight and Transportation, Inc., Anchorage, AK, United States

Driver September 2003 - December 2006

- Hostler, delivering trailers of goods from the Port of Anchorage to various stores, businesses and job sites around the Anchorage bowl area.

Wilder Construction

Lowboy driver- June 2003-September 2003

- Lowboy driver/ Water truck driver, hauling equipment around job and providing dust control on the project. Road project around Clear, Alaska. 27 miles of reconstruction and paving of the Parks Highway.

Houston Contracting Company, Fort Greely, Alaska. Missile Defense Project- Building a Utilidor for the Missile field

Expeditor- August 2002- December 2002

- Drove to Fairbanks, Alaska daily to gather material at various businesses for workers on the job site.

Houston Contracting Company, Valdez Marine Terminal, Valdez, Alaska. (Trans Alaska Pipeline) Numerous Maintenance Projects on the VMT.

General Foreman-March 2000- April 2002

- Supervised a crew of 23 drivers and warehousemen.
- Coordinated all moving of material, equipment and men for Projects on the Valdez Marine Terminal, supporting over 200 personnel on various projects there.

Houston Contracting Company, North Slope of Alaska- North Star Island Project-building pipeline and burying below sea to North Star Island.

General Foreman January 2000-February 2000

- Responsible for coordinating the moving of all materials, equipment and crews to and from project on a daily basis.
- Supervised 35 truck drivers helping build this project

Houston Contracting Company, Kuparuk, Alaska (North Slope of Alaska) Building the Alpine Pipelines

General Foreman December 1997- May 1999

- Responsible for coordinating the moving of all materials, equipment and crews to and from project on a daily basis
- Supervised 65 truck drivers for this project
- Supported/coordinated overall job of 300 personnel for all transportation needs
- Supervised VSM (Vertical Support Members) stringing crew

H.C. Price, Healy, Alaska- Project was building the Healy Clean Coal Plant

warehousemen February 1997-December 1997

- performed general warehouse duties of shipping and receiving material for the project
- handing out supplies to workers on the job site

Houston Contracting 1990-1997 (During the winter months) various pipeline projects on the North Slope of Alaska

Tractor Trailer driver to Lowboy driver for these various projects over the years

Price/Ahtna Trans Alaska Pipeline- various crews over the years Example: Dig crew (corrosion investigation-digging up the main pipeline and repairing) to working on projects at the Valdez Marine Terminal

June 1992-November 1996 (Summer time work)

Lowboy driver hauling equipment and materials from jobsite to jobsite along the Trans Alaska Pipeline

Houston Contracting Company North Slope of Alaska-pipeline job in Kuparuk,1985. and pipeline job in 1986 on the BP side of the field.

flatbed driver 1985-1986

EDUCATION

University of Alaska – Anchorage, Anchorage, AK, United States

Completed coursework towards General Studies, May 1989

West Anchorage High School, Anchorage, AK, United States

High School Diploma, May 1984