

Ranking Member Pete Stauber: Submissions for the Record
EMR Legislative Hearing – May 24, 2022

Member Statements in Opposition to H.R. 2794:

- Ranking Member Bruce Westerman
- Joint Statement – Congressman Tom Emmer and Congresswoman Michelle Fischbach

Letters of Opposition to H.R. 2794:

- International Union of Operating Engineers
- National Mining Association (NMA)
- National Sand, Stone, and Gravel Association (NSSGA)

Comments in Opposition to the Proposed Administrative Mineral Withdrawal in the Superior National Forest:

- International Union of Operating Engineers
- International Union of Operating Engineers – Local 49
- Laborers’ International Union of North America
- Laborers’ International Union of North America – Minnesota and North Dakota
- Minnesota Building and Construction Trades Council
- North Central States Regional Council of Carpenters
- Minnesota Pipe Trades Association
- Twin Metals Minnesota
- Minnesota State Senators David Tomassoni, Thomas Bakk, and Justin Eichorn; Minnesota State Representatives David Lislegard, Rob Ecklund, Julie Sandstede, Dale Lueck, and Spencer Igo
- Range Association of Municipalities and Schools (RAMS)
- Area Partnership for Economic Expansion (APEX)
- Jobs for Minnesotans
- MiningMinnesota

Articles:

- “A Democrat Deflates a Trump ‘Scandal’,” Kimberley Strassel, Wall Street Journal, June 6, 2019
- “Congressman's View: Anti mining, Anti Northland bill demands to be rejected,” Congressman Pete Stauber, Duluth News Tribune, May 23, 2022
- “Local View: Acid rock drainage a nonissue with Twin Metals mine,” Rens Verburg, Duluth News Tribune, January 14, 2022
- “In Northern Minnesota, Two Economies Square Off: Mining vs. Wilderness,” Reid Forgrave, New York Times, October 12, 2017

Additional item:

- Testimony of Jason George, Business Manager and Financial Secretary for the International Union of Operating Engineers Local 49, Subcommittee on Energy and Mineral Resources Hearing considering H.R. 5598, dated February 5, 2020