

John “JB” Byrd

Headquartered in Fairfax City, Virginia, "JB" is President of Miller/Wenhold Capitol Strategies specializing in government affairs with over 20 years in advocacy, policy, and strategic initiatives. He began working in the Federal policy arena in October 2001.

In 2005, JB was hired by John M. Palatiello & Associates, a public affairs consulting firm which merged with Miller/Wenhold in 2018. He is the registered federal lobbyist for the National Society of Professional Surveyors (NSPS). JB is also the lead staffer for the Council on Federal Procurement of Architectural and Engineering Services (COFPAES), the Digital Coast Partnership and Advocacy Coalition, the 3D Elevation Program (3DEP) Coalition, and the Coalition for the White House Conference on Small Business (WHCSB). Additionally, JB lobbies for the Subsurface Utility Engineering Association (SUEA), the U.S. Geospatial Executives Organization (USGEO), and individual firms as clients.

JB earned an MBA from Winthrop University and BA in History from James Madison University.