MEMORANDUM

To: All Members and Staff
Subcommittee on Energy and Mineral Resources

From: The Honorable Pete Stauber, Chairman

Subject: Oversight field hearing in Cedar City, Utah – Monday, May 12, 2025

On Monday, May 12, 2025 at 2:00 p.m. (MDT) the House Committee on Natural Resources, Subcommittee on Energy and Mineral Resources will hold an oversight hearing entitled “Letting Off Steam: Unleashing Geothermal Energy Development on Federal Land.” The hearing will examine the barriers to developing geothermal energy on federal lands. The hearing will also highlight the growth potential of geothermal energy as a result of developing technologies like enhanced geothermal systems (EGS) and how this potential could help us meet rapidly growing domestic energy demand.

This hearing will be held in the Sterling R. Church Auditorium in the Sharwan Smith Student Center, at Southern Utah University, 351 W University Boulevard, in Cedar City, Utah.

Witnesses will be by invitation only.

Members of Congress interested in attending the hearing should notify the committee by Wednesday, May 7, 2025, by contacting Madeline Kelley, Director of Member Services (madeline.kelley@mail.house.gov).

If you need further information, please contact Jacob Greenberg, Legislative Assistant, Subcommittee on Energy and Mineral Resources, at (202) 225-9297.
