

Ron Walter

Personal Background:

Ron has served the people of Chelan County as a County Commissioner since 2001. Ron and his wife Deb have lived on a cherry orchard off Squilchuck Road in Wenatchee since 1976. Ron and Deb have three children and eight grandchildren. Ron enjoys growing cherries, boating, camping, hiking, fishing, softball and snow skiing

Education:

- Graduate of Washington State University with a Bachelor of Science in Construction Management
- Class 17 Graduate of the Washington Ag. Forestry Education Foundation, member of Washington State Farm Bureau and Washington State Horticulture Association

County Responsibilities:

- Upper Columbia Salmon Recovery Board
- Washington State Association of Counties Legislative Steering Committee past chairman and member
- Washington Timber Counties Group
- NACO Chairman Public Lands Steering Committee, and Past President and board member of WIR
- Steering Committee Member of North Central Washington Forest Collaborative
- Regional Support Network Board Member
- LINK Board Member
- Stemilt Partnership Committee

Community Activities:

- Member First Presbyterian Church
- Member Washington State Hort Association
- Member Washington State Farm Bureau