

THEODORE J. STROLL

FORMER LEGAL EMPLOYMENT

- 1989-2014 Judicial staff attorney in the California appellate courts. At the Sixth District Court of Appeal from 2007-2014; at the Supreme Court of California from 1989-2007. Researched and helped draft opinions in criminal and civil law. Now retired; assumed inactive status in 2015.
- 1986-1988 Stoel Rives law firm, Portland, Oregon. Attorney from 1987 to 1988; summer associate in 1986. Civil litigation practice, including securities, employment, and admiralty law; additional specialization in immigration law.
- 1986 Supreme Court of California. Extern from January to May.
- 1985 Lane Powell Spears Lubersky law firm, Portland, Oregon. Summer associate.

EDUCATION

- 1984-1987 Boalt Hall School of Law. Juris Doctor awarded May 1987. Associate editor, Ecology Law Quarterly, fall 1985.
- 1982-1983 Columbia University. Master of Science in Journalism awarded May 1983. Recipient, American Banker scholarship for business journalism; award for science writing.
- 1974-1978 Williams College, Williamstown, Massachusetts. Bachelor of Arts in economics awarded cum laude June 1978. Dean's list each semester.

BACKGROUND AND ACTIVITIES

President, Sustainable Trails Coalition, a nonprofit organization that seeks fairer rules governing human-powered bicycling on federal lands. Published op-ed article on this subject in The New York Times, Aug. 27, 2010. Author, Congress's Intent in Banning Mechanical Transport in the Wilderness Act of 1964 (2004) 12 Penn. St. Env'tl. L. Rev. 459. Member, volunteer bicycle trail patrols for the Santa Clara Valley Open Space Authority and the East Bay Regional Park District. Former amateur bicycle racer, road and mountain. Proficient in Portuguese, Spanish, and French; some knowledge of Italian. Professional Portuguese, Spanish, and French translator; translated Brazilian novel by José Louzeiro, Land of Black Clay.