

Elizabeth W. Castagna

Vice President

Friends of Weir Farm National Historic Site

Supporting a legacy of art, nature and creativity

Ms. Castagna is a founding board member of Friends of Weir Farm National Historic Site and has served as Vice President since 2016. She has taken a lead role in both the proposal to change the park's designation to Weir Farm National Historical Park and in securing a number of grants to fund historic preservation at the park and other projects. She began her affiliation with Weir Farm National Historic Site in 2014 as a volunteer docent assisting with park interpretation. She has over 20 years of experience in the financial services industry in a wide range of finance and executive administrative roles.

Ms. Castagna earned an B.A. in Art History from Barnard College, Columbia University, and an M.B.A. in Finance from The Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania. She has previously served as Treasurer on the board of Girls Inc. of New York City and currently lives with her family in Redding, CT.
