

RESUME

Douglas W. Bostick

Home:

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Work:

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Education

B.A. Degree	College of Charleston	Charleston, SC
Master's Degree	University of South Carolina	Columbia, SC

Employment

2011 – present      Executive Director / CEO
South Carolina Battleground Preservation Trust, Inc.
Charleston, South Carolina

Serve as Chief Executive Officer for a nonprofit foundation and land trust dedicated to protecting and preserving historic military sites in South Carolina.

Serve as Principal Investigator for all research projects and consulting projects undertaken by the Trust.

Serve as chief research historian for all projects undertaken by the Trust.

Supervise a staff of archaeologists, GIS technicians, and GPS technicians for the Trust.

1999 - present      Historian / Author / Freelance Writer
Charleston, South Carolina

Writer and Historian. Author of twenty-six published books on non-fiction history.

Written numerous articles that have appeared in historical journals, magazines and national newsletters. Interviewed on network television, public radio, led historic tours and presented at numerous conventions, civic groups, historical societies, libraries, and genealogy associations.

Commissioning Editor and Project Manager for a series of more than fifty books commemorating battles across the nation during the Sesquicentennial of the Civil War.

2008 – 2009

Director of Development
Patriots Point Naval & Maritime Museum
Mount Pleasant, SC

Write the public speeches and develop PowerPoint presentations for the Executive Director. Serve as liaison between state and federal government for the agency. Advised the Executive Director on matters related to the long range plan.

2004 – 2007

Publisher
James Island, SC

Publish and art design ten books for publication. Supervise free-lance copyeditors, proofreaders and graphic designers as needed. Contract for the printing of the books.

2001 – 2004

Executive Director
Save The Light, Inc.
Charleston, SC

Responsible for management of a non-profit association dedicated to the preservation of the Morris Island Lighthouse. Led the negotiation between Save The Light and the SC Department of Natural Resources to transfer ownership of the lighthouse to the State of South Carolina, thereby ensuring grant funds for stabilization from the US Army Corps of Engineers.

1985 – 2001

Executive Director for multiple non-profit foundations and corporations.

1979 – 1985

Professor and Staff member
University of Maryland, College Park, MD
University of South Carolina, Columbia, SC

Community Associations and Activities

Old St. Andrews Parish Church, vestry member

Commemoration of the 150th Anniversary of the Firing on Fort Sumter, Chairman

Palmetto Guard, Member

Washington Light Infantry, Honorary Member

Kappa Alpha Order, National Chief Alumnus and Graves Province Commander

Parents for Public Schools, Board Member, Charleston, SC chapter

Cougar Club, College of Charleston, President

James Island Little League Baseball, Coach