Ranotta McNair, retired after 33 years of federal service working for the Forest Service. Much of my career was spent in leadership working on National Forests in the Pacific Northwest and Northern Idaho. I am on the Board of Directors for the National Association of Forest Service Retirees (NAFSR). We are an organization dedicated to sustaining the Forest Service mission and adapting to today's and tomorrow's challenges. Our principal beliefs and values include protecting and managing diverse lands and valued resources while providing a wide array of uses and services to the public. This includes providing for clean water and quality aquatic and terrestrial habitat. Our values also include responding professionally and responsibly in support of the efforts to protect public interest and ensure public safety.
