

By the Numbers: Commemorative Works on the National Mall

Of the 40 commemorative works in the area of the National Mall known as the Reserve, zero (0) are dedicated to American women's history. Amongst our most iconic monuments and memorials, American women's stories are missing.

Commemorative Works Dedicated to Singular Men: 22

- 56 Signers of the Dec. of Independence Mem.
- Bernard Baruch Bench of Inspiration
- Bulfinch Gate Posts
- Butt-Millet Memorial
- Franklin Delano Roosevelt Memorial
- Garfield Monument
- General Andrew Jackson Statue
- General Comte de Rochambeau Statue
- General Lafayette Statue
- General Thaddeus Kosciuszko Statue
- General Ulysses S. Grant Memorial
- General Von Steuben Statue
- General Sherman Statue
- George Mason Memorial
- Jefferson Pier Stone

- John Ericsson Memorial
- John Paul Jones Memorial
- Lincoln Memorial
- Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial
- Professor Joseph Henry Statue
- Thomas Jefferson Memorial
- Washington Monument

Commemorative Works Dedicated to Military Veterans & War History: 10

- A Prayer for the Nation
- Circle of Remembrance
- District of Columbia War Memorial
- First Division Monument
- Global War on Terrorism Memorial
- Korean War Veterans Memorial
- Peace Monument
- Second Division Memorial
- Vietnam Veterans Memorial
- World War II Memorial

Commemorative Works Dedicated to Private Organizations: 2

- National Grange Memorial
- Boy Scout Memorial

Commemorative Works Dedicated to Aviation & Postal History: 1

- First Air Mail Flight Marker

Commemorative Works Dedicated to American Canal History: 1

- Lockkeepers House

Commemorative Works Dedicated to Foreign Relations: 3

- German-American Friendship Garden
- Japanese Lantern
- Japanese Pagoda

Commemorative Works Dedicated to Animals: 1

- U.S. Park Police Horse Stables & Education Center

By the Numbers: The National Mall

The area of the National Mall known as the Reserve measures 1,030 acres. Of the 1,030 acres, 699 acres (68%) are greenspace, 210 acres (20%) are bodies of water, and 120 acres (12%) are developed with monuments, memorials, and commemorative works.

Acreage of Existing Commemorative Works on the National Mall

11.7%

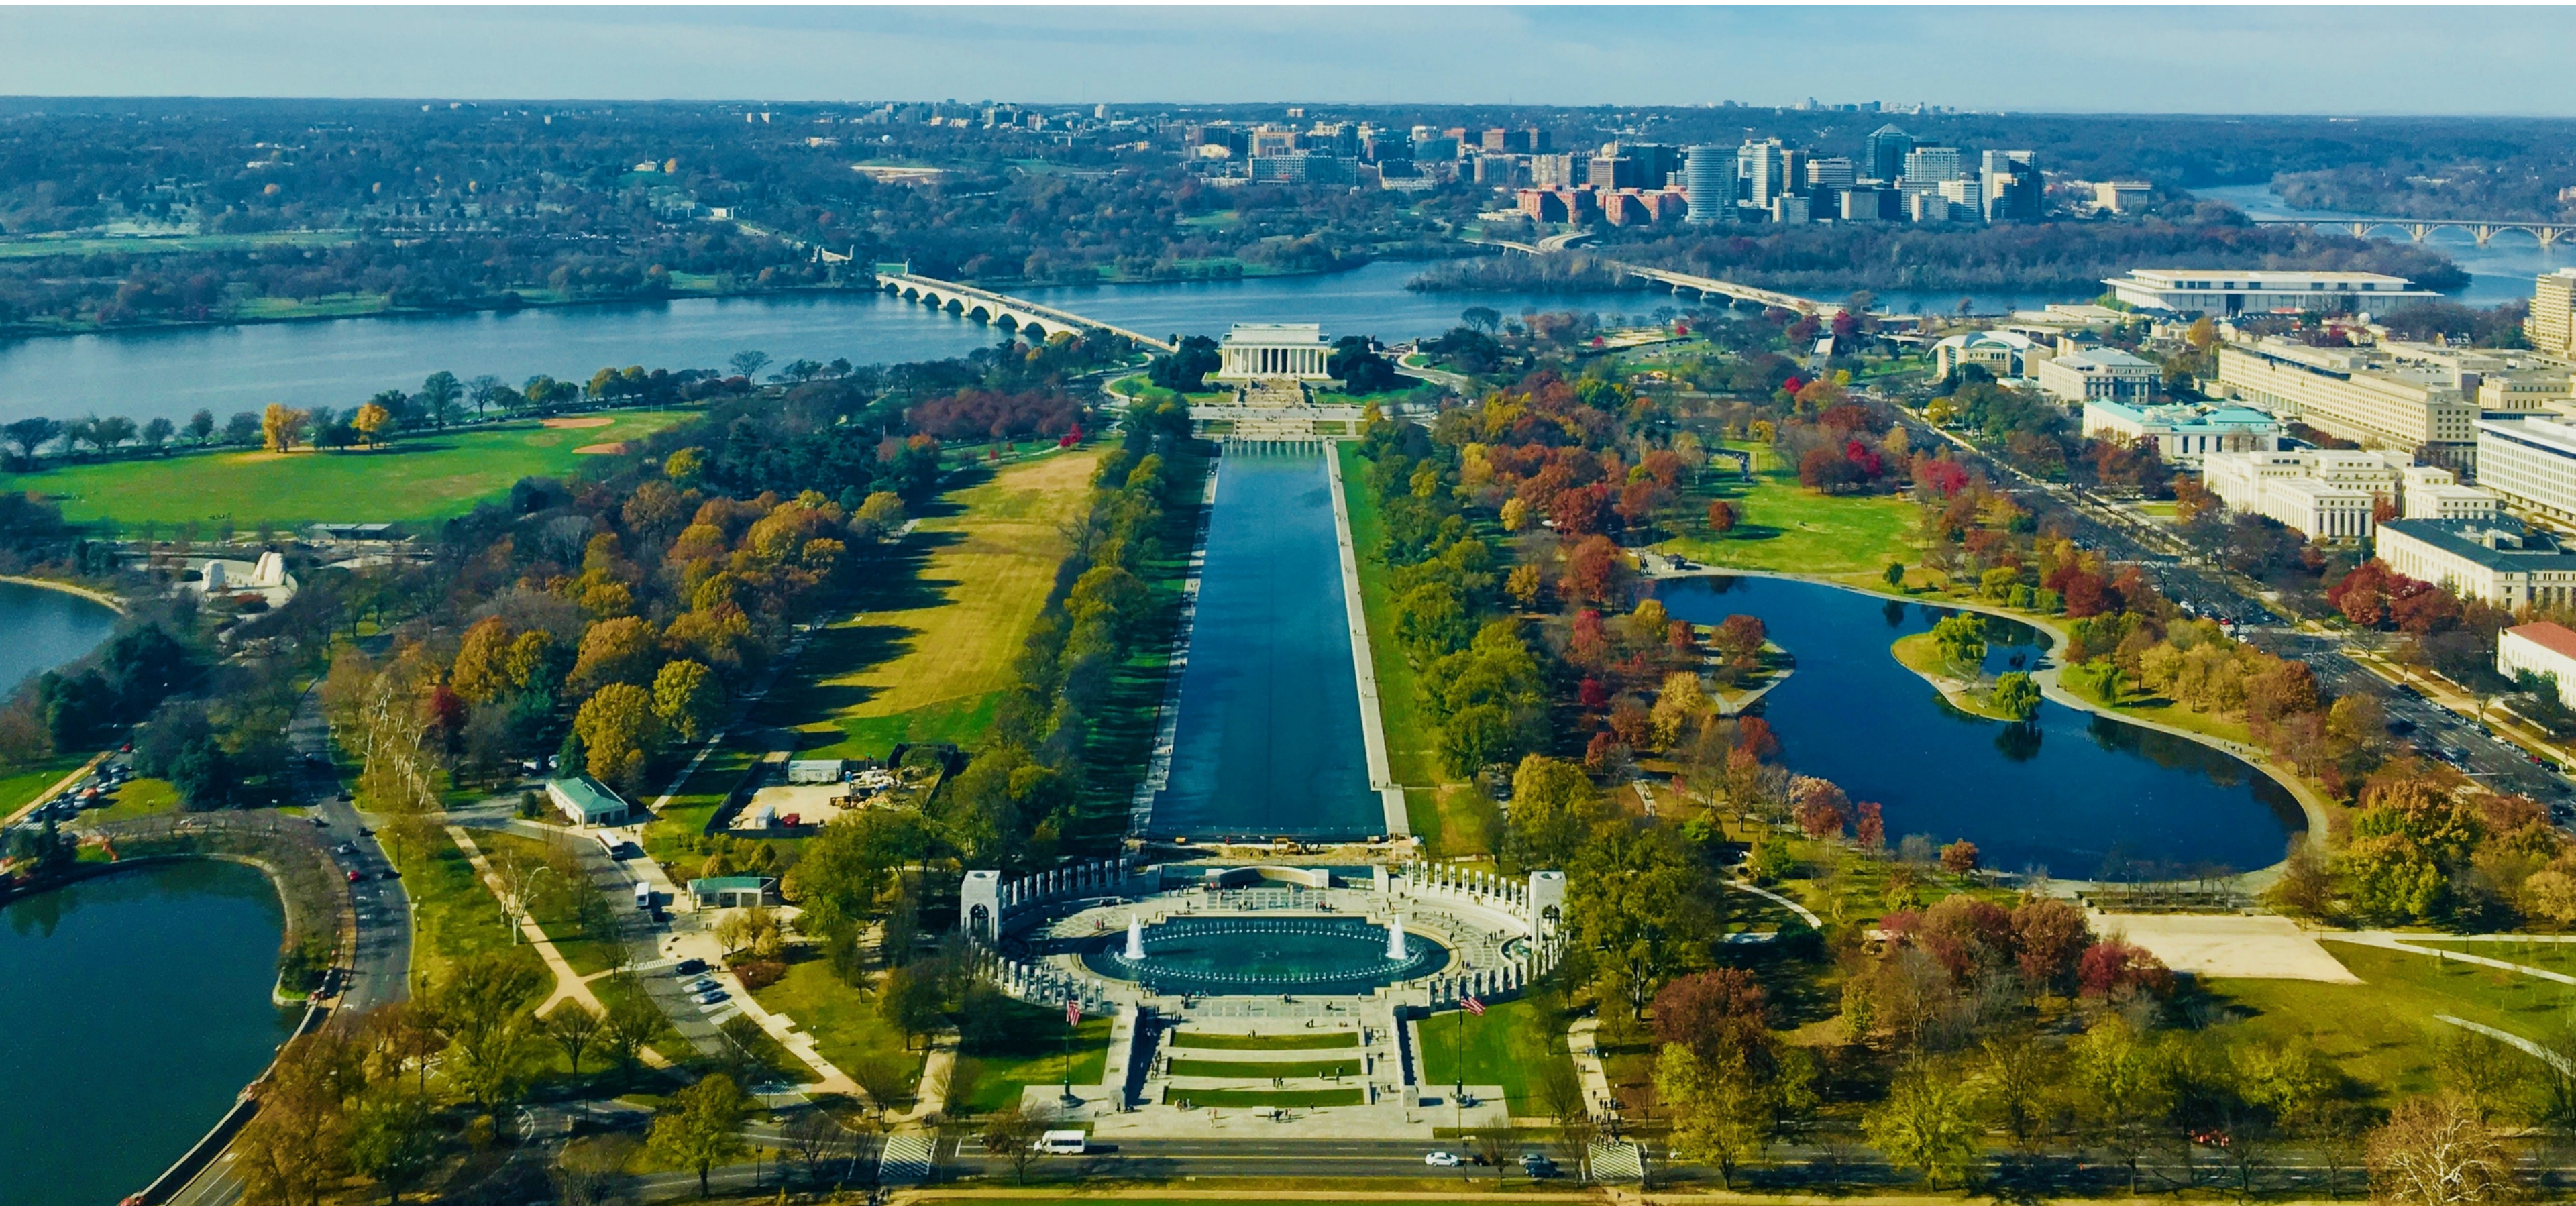

Acreage of Water on the National Mall

20.4%

Acreage of Greenspace on the National Mall

67.9%

By the Numbers: Highlights

Annual Visitors to the National Mall: 36 million

Number of Commemorative Works on the National Mall: 40

Number of Commemorative Works on the National Mall Dedicated to Singular Men: 22

Number of Commemorative Works on the National Mall Dedicated to Singular Women: 0

Acreage of Greenspace on the National Mall: 699

Acreage of the National Mall Telling the History of Horses: 2.33

Acreage of the National Mall Telling the History of American Women: 0

Acreage of the National Mall Needed to Build the Women's Suffrage National Monument: 1

Percentage of the 432 National Parks managed by the National Park Service that commemorate some aspect of American women's history: 2.3%

Percentage of the 3,000 designated National Historic Landmarks that commemorate some aspect of American women's history: less than 4%

