

Jeff Young

jyoung@theensigngroup.com

Education

MASTER OF SCIENCE | 1994 | BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY

- Major: Animal Science
- Degree program emphasized management and production agriculture

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE | 1992 | BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY

- Major: Pre-veterinary Science
- Related coursework: Meat Science, Livestock and Carcass Evaluation

Skills & Abilities

MANAGEMENT

- I am the General Manager of Ensign Ranches.
 - Responsible for livestock, farming and feeding operations in Utah, Idaho, and Wyoming.
 - Manage a large commercial cow herd.
 - Operate a 10,000 head backgrounding feedlot.
 - Manage farming operations to support the feed requirements of the cowherd and feeding operation.
 - Manage a large acreage of private lands as well as work with Bureau of Land Management, United States Forest Service, and State and Institutional Trust Lands.

MARKETING

- Develop annual Marketing Plan
- Risk management

LEADERSHIP

- Past Board Member Eastern Summit County Ag Preservation Board – Served 6 years
- Summit County Farm Bureau President
- Utah Cattlemen's Association President

Experience

MANAGER | ARIMO CORPORATION | OCTOBER 1993 – DECEMBER 1994

- Managed a 700 head cow/calf operation and farmed 1,300 Acres of irrigated farmland

GENERAL MANAGER | ENSIGN RANCHES | JANUARY 1995 TO PRESENT

- 25 fulltime employees,
- 3,000 acres of irrigated farmland
- 10,000 head background feedlot
- 12,000 head cowherd