

Jim D. Neiman

President
Neiman Enterprises, Inc.

Jim D. Neiman is the 3rd generation in his family to work in the forest products industry. His grandfather, A.C. Neiman, started a sawmill in the Black Hills in 1936, and his dad, James S. Neiman, is still actively involved in the family's ranch and timber businesses at the age of 95.

The Neiman Family now owns four Forest Products facilities: Devils Tower Forest Products, Hulett, WY; Spearfish Forest Products, Spearfish, SD; Montrose Forest Products, Montrose, CO and Gilchrist Forest Products in Gilchrist, OR. The Neiman Family also owns Neiman 77 Ranches and The Golf Club at Devils Tower, located in Hulett, WY as well as Heartland Wood Pellets, Spearfish, SD.

Jim is a 1974 graduate from the University of Wyoming with a BS degree in Range Management and a minor in Business Administration. He and his wife Christy of 47 years, have two grown children and 5 grandchildren. Both of his children, Marcus and Sonja, work for the family companies along with his sister, Sheri Stinson, and two of her children, Jerod and Shelly.

He is a past member of the Wyoming Occupational Health & Safety Commission; the Wyoming Economic Development & Stabilization Board; the Independent Forest Product Association; the Enhanced Oil Recovery Commission and the past Chairman of the School of Environmental and Natural Resources with the University of Wyoming, past President of the University of Wyoming Board of Trustees and a former director with Summit National Bank. He served as a Co-Chair for Wyoming Governor's Task Force on Forests from 2015-2017. He is a founding member of the Federal Forest Resource Coalition and served as President from 2015-2017. He has also served on the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City's Economic Advisory Council from 2013-2018.

He currently serves on the Hulett Airport Advisory Board, and is the Treasurer of the Black Hills Forest Resource Association and a member of the Intermountain Forest Association. Jim was recently appointed as a Regular Member of the Boone & Crockett Club. He currently supports the conservation efforts as an Imperial Habitat Partner of the RMEF as well as sponsors the same conservation efforts of the NWTF. Jim is also a strong supporter of the Old West Invitational Turkey Shoot held in his hometown of Hulett, Wyoming, which is in its 14th year.
