Steve Crowder was born and raised in the San Francisco Bay Area, where he owned and operated a successful Glass business for over 20 years. He moved to Paradise in 2013 where he and his wife owned and still operates today a successful embroidery, shirt printing and laser engraving business. In 2013, he joined the Paradise Chamber of Commerce and became a board of director shortly after. He also served the Town of Paradise on numerous stakeholder committees, including the beautification, business license and sewer committee.

He was first elected to Paradise Town Council on November 6, 2018 and reelected on November 8, 2022. He served 3 ½ years as councilmember, 6 months as vice mayor, 3 years as Mayor and currently serving the 4th term as Mayor.

Steve has also served his community through participation in Fraternal and Service Organizations, such as the Paradise Rotary Club, the Paradise Paradise of Flags, Paradise Elks Lodge, and the Paradise Moose Lodge.

Steve and his wife, Lori have 3 grown children and are both heavily involved within the community.

In their free time, they enjoy RVing with their two Miniature Schnauzers, Fritz and Missy.
