

AMERICAN STEWARDS of Liberty

Margaret H. Byfield
Executive Director
American Stewards of Liberty

Margaret is an agricultural and natural resource expert working to protect property rights since 1992. She is a nationally recognized speaker, writer, and advocate for landowners nationwide protecting the production of America's food, fiber, minerals, and energy. Margaret grew up on Pine Creek Ranch in Central Nevada and now lives in Texas. She is married and has a 22 year-old daughter.

Margaret has authored numerous articles on the stewardship of America's natural resources, including "Why 'stewardship' should guide how we care for resources," published in the Federal Newswire, Oct. 11, 2025.

Margaret received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Music and English from the College of Idaho in 1989.

American Stewards of Liberty

American Stewards of Liberty (ASL) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization whose mission is to protect property rights and the liberties they secure by defending the use of our land, and restoring local control. ASL provides educational policy briefings to members of Congress on federal actions that erode property and identify responses that would bring these actions in alignment with full Constitutional protection of these rights.

