1. Please attach/include current curriculum vitae or resume.

Karli is a rancher and small business owner from Chouteau, MT, located in the heart of the NCDE grizzly population. Her family has ranched in the area for the last 5 generations. She previously served on the Livestock Loss Board which is responsible for evaluating and reimbursing farmers and ranchers who have sustained livestock losses due to grizzly bears, wolves, and mountain lions, as well as providing grants to individuals and organizations who implement proactive preventative measures. Karli is a member of Montana Farm Bureau, a graduate of Montana State University and the REAL Montana Leadership program. Karli and her husband, Ben, have two kids and enjoy watching them explore and learn on the ranch.
