

Donald J. Hineman
Resume
April 16, 2023

Legislative Career:

Kansas House of Representatives 2009-2020.

House Majority Leader 2017-2018.

Chairman of Kansas House Rural Revitalization Committee, 2019

Multi-year member of Kansas House Tax Committee

Alumnus of Kansas Health Institute's 2011 Health Academy.

Alumnus of Council of State Government's 2011 Bowhay Institute for Legislative Leadership Development.

Professional Career:

Owner/operator of Don Hineman Farms, a dryland farming operation producing wheat, corn, and grain sorghum

Partner with son Andy in D&A Farms, a custom farming, manure application, and grain production enterprise.

General managing partner for Hineman Farms L.P., a family grain production enterprise.

Past general manager of Hineman Ranch LLC, a cow-calf enterprise doing business as High Plains Gelbvieh, producer of registered Gelbvieh, Angus, Red Angus, and hybrid seedstock. This enterprise was liquidated in early 2010 to make time for expanded farming operations and legislative commitments. My interest in Hineman Ranch LLC has since been transferred to my son Andy Hineman

Past member of Board of Directors, Lane County Feeders, a 42,000 head commercial cattle feeding enterprise

Trade Associations:

Board of Directors, National Cattlemen's Beef Association, 2002-2008.

President, Kansas Livestock Association, 2001.

Board of Directors and Executive Committee, American Gelbvieh Association, 1989-1991.

Member of National Sorghum Producers Legislative Committee 2021-present

Local Public Service:

Lane County Commission, 1984-2000.

Dighton City Council, 1978-1982

Lane County Community Foundation, 2021 to present

Dighton United Methodist Church:

Certified Lay Speaker

Leader, Disciple Bible Study

Chairman, Finance Committee

Member, Chancel Choir

Education:

B.S. Business, University of Kansas, 1969

M.B.A., University of Michigan, 1970

M.S., Natural Resources, University of Michigan, 1973

Family:

Married to wife, Betsy, since 1970.

Son Andy lives in Scott City with his wife Libby and sons Kalo and Harrison and daughter Maggie.

Daughter Sarah lives in Winfield with her husband, Gage Werner, and son Bruce and daughter Willa.