

Tim Whitehouse

Professional Experience

Executive Director March 2019-current
Public Employees for Environmental Responsibility

Direct overall strategic and operational work of PEER mission. Develop and implement strategies aiming to promote the organization's mission in collaboration with the Board of Directors, staff team and supporters. Work to build positive, energetic and sustainable organizational culture and an effective team of staff and supporters.

Executive Director May 2013-February 2019
Chesapeake Physicians for Social Responsibility Baltimore, Maryland

Led in recruiting, training, and engaging healthcare professionals on legislative and policy issues related to climate change, energy, and toxic substances. Work to strengthen the organization's fundraising, outreach, and administrative capacity. Plaintiff in numerous lawsuits against the state and federal government for violating state and federal laws. Since May 2013, membership has grown by 400%, fundraising by 60%, and web traffic by 11,000%. Work 20-24 hours per week.

Deputy Executive Director February 2018- February 2019
International Association for Dance Science and Medicine Home-based work

Led team responsible for conducting the business affairs of IADMS. Collaborate with the Board, staff and workgroups in ensuring sound operational management and execution of policies and programs. Create and assist in executing long-term and short-term plans and directives. Work 20-24 hours per week.

President September 2011-November 2017
Cyan Environmental Group Poolesville, Maryland

Developed research and analysis, training support, and facilitation services to clients interested in environmental, health, and trade issues. Clients included major metals recycler, foreign developer of nanotechnologies, and an international organization.

President, Co-Founder and Former Executive Director Poolesville Green

May 2010-June 2015
Poolesville, Maryland

Poolesville Green is a nonprofit organization founded in 2010 to promote the appreciation, conservation and sustainable use of natural resources, chiefly energy and water, in and around the town of Poolesville, Maryland.

Independent Consultant
International Environment and Trade

2007-2011
Poolesville, Maryland

Project management, training, facilitation, research, and writing for national and international clients on the electronics waste trade in North America, energy issues in Mexico, environmental controls at seaports, improving training of border inspectors, and the effectiveness of Multilateral Environmental Agreements.

Head, Law and Policy Program
North American Commission on Environmental Cooperation

2002-2007
Montreal, Canada

Directed the Law and Policy Program for a commission overseen by the United States, Canada, and Mexico. Facilitated and directed the work of seven taskforces on law and policy-related activities in the areas of enforcement cooperation, wildlife issues, transboundary hazardous waste shipments, and judicial, legal, and Customs training.

Senior Attorney
United States Environmental Protection Agency

1992-2002
Washington, DC

1999-2002. Provided legal and policy advice to EPA management on international enforcement and compliance issues.

1992-1999. Managed nationally significant enforcement cases and policy issues involving the Clean Water Act and wetlands issues and served as special assistant to senior managers.

Education

Emory University - JD in Law, BA in History.
New York University - MA in French Language and Civilization