

Fred Gamboa

Capt Fred has operated Andreas Toy Charters for the past 25 years. Fred is one of the original pioneers in Multi Species Fishing out to the Canyons from a Center Console. Since then he has multi species fished from New Jersey to Florida/Bahamas and was invited by Minister of Tourism of Peru to work with Captains in the famous waters of Cabo Blanco.

Capt. Fred is on the Pro Staffs of Contender, Yamaha, Nomad, Owner, Chatter Lures, AFW, Costa, and Shimano. Capt Fred has appeared in numerous fishing shows on the Sportsman Channel and Outdoor Channel Network, He is very active on the seminar circuit and enjoys sharing his knowledge with enthusiastic crowds. During the winter months you can find Capt Fred performing seminars at All of the major shows, Philly Outdoor fishing show, Atlantic City boat show, Edison Saltwater Fishing Show and Canyon Runner Seminar Series. Capt Fred has written numerous articles for the Fisherman Magazine and Big Game Journal, while he has been highlighted countless times in Saltwater Sportsman, Sportfishing and On the Water magazines.

Captain Fred is very active in sustaining the species he chases. He was one of the original captains who participated in the tuna tagging program with John Logioco, "Save the Bluefin Tuna Project". Currently he is involved in a Bluefin Tuna Genetics Fin Clip project with the University of Maine. Capt Fred was one of the very few Chosen to serve on the board of "ICCAT", The International Commission for the Conservation of Atlantic Tunas, where he served a two-year term.

Currently Captain Fred is expanding the Andrea's Toy brand adding a third vessel to the fleet, and increasing his stable of captains/mates to a dozen members. Currently he is traveling the world looking to expand the Andrea's Toy brand and be an Ambassador to the Species he chases!
