New York State Division of Fish and Wildlife
(1981-2015)

Most recent position: Chief Wildlife Biologist
Albany, NY

SIGNIFICANT PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE: (with selected annotations)

1985-1989 Project leader, status and management of common terns (Niagara River, Buffalo Harbor)

1988-1990 Co-chair, New York Joint Venture (Great Lakes), North American Waterfowl Management Plan

1989 Team leader to develop agency response protocol for raccoon rabies epidemic

1989-present Member and Secretary, U.S. Technical Advisory Group on Humane Trapping
Represented state wildlife agency interests during development of international humane trapping standards.

- 1989-2000 Member of U.S. delegation to ISO TC-191 (International Organization for Standardization technical committee on humane trapping standards)
Represented U.S. interests to the international body developing humane trapping standards.
- 1989-1990 Vice-President, New York Chapter of The Wildlife Society
- 1993-1995 Chair, Division of Fish, Wildlife & Marine Resources Centennial Committee
A statewide agency celebration of 100 years of conservation leadership.
- May 1994 Addressed the Congressional Sportsmen's Caucus on the effects of the European Union's (EU) wild fur regulation
- 1996-1997 Co-negotiator for the U.S. Trade Representative's Office on the EU wild fur regulation. (Assigned to U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service via the Intergovernmental Personnel Act.)
I was one of two state agency representatives on the U.S. delegation serving the Clinton Administration negotiating with the EU on implementation of the EU wild fur regulation. We successfully concluded an "Agreed Minute" which allowed the wild fur trade to continue without interruption.
- 1995-1998 Chair, Facilities Committee, The Wildlife Society national conference, Buffalo (1998)
- July 2000 Referee, special issue of the Wildlife Society Bulletin on hunting and trapping
- 2002-2004 State agency liaison (team member) to U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service for development of National Wildlife Refuge System policies (Intergovernmental Personnel Act)
I served with four other state agency representatives to represent state interests on a federal/state team to draft new policies on public use of national wildlife refuges, required under the National Wildlife Refuge System Improvement Act of 1997.
- 2004-2010 Chair, interagency work group on implementation of CITES (furbearer) tagging requirements
I led a team of four state agency representatives working with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service to revise policies on the tagging of furbearers (primarily bobcat and river otter) pursuant to the Convention on the International Trade of Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora (CITES).

- 1992-2010 Member and Chair (2000-2010), U.S. Furbearer Management (formerly, Furbearer Resources) Technical Work Group (Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies). See <http://www.furbearermgmt.org/>. The major accomplishments of this group include:
 Development of Best Management Practices for animal traps in the United States, including implementation of the most comprehensive research program on traps ever undertaken anywhere in the World.
 Development of a national trapper education curriculum.
 Development of agency training and outreach products for professional development in furbearer conservation and trapper education.
 Coordinated state agency input during the negotiations with the EU.
 Head of U.S. Delegation: Joint Management Committee; Moscow, Russia; October 2009.
- 2010-present Chair, Sustainable Use of Wildlife Committee, Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies.
- 2000-2003 Vice-chair, International Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies Fur Resources Task Force.
- 2004-2005 Referee, Techniques for Wildlife Investigations and Management, 6th Edition, Chapter 10, "Capture and handling wild animals," The Wildlife Society, Inc.
