

James R. Webb

Biographical Information

EXPERIENCE

- President/CEO – Lower Valley Energy – Afton, Wyoming
October 1994 to present (lowest residential rates of all 850 electric cooperatives in the country for several years running)
- General Manager – Northern Lights, Inc. – Sandpoint, Idaho
April 1993 to October 1994
- Assistant General Manager – Lower Valley Power & Light – Afton, Wyoming
January 1992 to April 1993
- CFO – Lower Valley Power & Light – Afton, Wyoming
November 1987 to January 1992

EDUCATION

- University of Utah – Salt Lake City, Utah
Bachelor of Science – Accounting – August 1984
- University of Nebraska – Lincoln Nebraska
NRECA Management Internship Program – April 1992
- University of North Carolina – Chapel Hill, North Carolina
Advanced Management Program – August 1999

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS, APPOINTMENTS, and AWARDS

- National Rural Electric Cooperative Association (NRECA) - Board of Directors
- Trump Transition Team – USDA Landing Team December 2024 – January 2025
- US Department of Energy – assigned and vetted to be in a small group of Northwest utilities to meet with John Podesta, President’s Senior Advisor of Clean energy Innovation and Implementation, and David Turk, Department of Energy Deputy Secretary, to discuss Pacific Northwest decarbonization goals and the disposition of the four lower Snake River dams
- Bonneville Power Administration (BPA) 2023 Administrator’s Excellence Award
- Idaho Energy Authority - President
- Energy Conservation Works (ECW) - Board of Directors
- Northwest Requirements Utilities (NRU) – Board of Directors
- NCSC (CFC affiliate organization) - Board of Directors -Term ended 2021
- Commissioner – Wyoming Energy Commission – Appointed by Governor Geringer - 2001 - 2006
- Certified Public Accountant – The State of New Mexico (not currently active)