

George Arhos, International Representative, IBEW Construction & Maintenance and Business Development Departments, Local Union 196

George is a native of the Chicago area and a first generation IBEW member. He served in the US Marine Corps and then entered the IBEW as an apprentice at Local Union 196 and has been a member for about 25 years. George was elected to the local union executive board and in 2003, was appointed to the local union staff. George served as organizer for 2 years, worked for ALBAT program for over nine years, and as the Director of Safety and Education, before being appointed to the international office in 2018.

George currently serves as the main and Executive Committee Chairman for the NESC, President of the NCSCB, Board Member of EICA, and Steering and Executive Committee member of the OSHA ET&D.

George and his wife Brandi currently reside in Sycamore, Illinois, and have 3 children.