

Mike McCormick, of Union Church, serves as the 10th president of the Mississippi Farm Bureau Federation, the state's largest general farm organization, with more than 177,000 member-families in all 82 counties. Under McCormick's leadership, Farm Bureau has grown exponentially and expanded its influence on Mississippi public policy by actively engaging with policy makers at every level while representing the interests of farmers, ranchers and rural Mississippians.

Mike has strengthened the name of Farm Bureau in the halls of the Mississippi State Capitol by being present, informed and impactful. He continues to serve as a leader in the state's agricultural community on local, state, national and international levels while working closely with elected officials, industry leaders and citizens from all walks of life.

Mike is honored to serve on numerous boards including Southern Farm Bureau Life Insurance Company, Southern Farm Bureau Casualty Insurance Company Chair, American Agricultural Insurance Company, Farm Bureau Bank, Mississippi State University College of Veterinary Medicine Dean's Advisory Council, Chicago Mercantile Exchange Agricultural Markets Advisory Council, Alcorn State University Foundation, Mississippi 4-H Foundation, Federal Communications Commission Precision Ag Taskforce, Mississippi Secretary of State's Conservation Taskforce, Harvest Permit Transportation Stewardship Council Chair, Emergency Road and Bridge Fund Committee Chair and American Farm Bureau Federation. Mike has received numerous awards including an Honorary State FFA Degree, being named one of the Top50 Most Influential People in Mississippi, Mississippi State University College of Agriculture and Life Sciences Dean's Award, Mississippi State University College of Veterinary Medicine President's Pegasus Award, and Mississippi State University Extension Director's Award.

For more than 100 years, Mike McCormick's family has farmed land in Jefferson County that he and his wife Suezan call home. He is a true leader, servant, proud farmer and businessman whose name equals trust and effectiveness.
