George Roberts
Governing Board Chair
Northwest Florida Water Management District

George Roberts is a lifelong Northwest Floridian whose roots in the region run deep. Born and raised in Northwest Florida, Mr. Roberts has spent more than 45 years building his career, raising his family, and serving the communities he has called home. Since entering the construction industry in 1981, he has worked on projects throughout the state of Florida and held positions ranging from surveyor and project superintendent to Director of Paving Operations and Vice President of six office locations. He is currently co-owner and Vice President of Roberts & Roberts, Inc., working from the company's Panama City office, and President of the Bay County Contractors & Associates, Inc.

For more than four decades, Mr. Roberts has been an active part of the people, businesses, and organizations that make Northwest Florida home. His professional and civic involvement reflects a longstanding commitment to the region and its continued success. He is a member and Past Chairman of the Florida Transportation Builders Association and a member of the Asphalt Contractors Association of Florida. He has also served on the Florida State University Panama City Development Board, the Bay County Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, and the Florida Transportation Builders Association Board of Directors.

Today, as Governing Board Chairman of the Northwest Florida Water Management District, Mr. Roberts brings a lifetime of firsthand knowledge and experience in Northwest Florida. His deep connection to the region gives him a unique perspective on the balance between protecting the area's natural resources, strengthening its infrastructure, and supporting the communities and economy that have been central to his life and career. His commitment is rooted in a simple principle: preserving and improving the Northwest Florida he has known and served throughout his life for the generations who will call it home.
