

Tyler William O'Neil

Managing Editor, The Daily Signal, Washington, D.C. 9/2022 – Present

- Manage the day-to-day operations of The Daily Signal, including assigning stories, managing editors, mentoring reporters.
- Cover breaking news and politics, cultivate sources within and outside The Heritage Foundation, and publish original and exclusive content. Drove more than 3 million pageviews in my first year.
- Broke stories about the Southern Poverty Law Center and the Anti-Defamation League. Wrote op-eds about my childhood trying to prevent wildfires in Colorado.

Digital Editor, Fox News, Washington, D.C. 8/2021 – 8/2022

- Managed a team of 3-5 reporters, fielding pitches, assigning stories, editing articles, sending push alerts to drive traffic to original and exclusive content.
- Covered breaking news and politics, cultivating sources and publishing original and exclusive content, driving an average of 20 million pageviews per month.
- Implemented my extensive knowledge of AP style to craft and revise editorial content.
- Covered Biden administration energy policy.

Author, Making Hate Pay: The Corruption of the Southern Poverty Law Center 1/2020

Senior Editor, PJ Media, Washington, D.C. 6/2015 – 7/2021

- Covered breaking news and politics, driving over 32 million pageviews in 2020 and 2021.
- Appeared on Tucker Carlson Tonight, I-24 News, and on multiple radio stations.
- Collaboratively manage a team of reporters and commentators, fielding pitches, assigning stories, editing articles and responding to third-party fact-checks.
- Covered climate alarmist predictions that failed to come true.

Staff Reporter, The Christian Post, Washington, D.C. 5/2013 – 3/2014

- Wrote 376 articles in 10 months, drew 2 million hits to The Christian Post website.

Education

Hillsdale College, Hillsdale, Mich. 2012

- Bachelor of Arts in History, Magna Cum Laude, Honors Program

Other Experience

Eagle Scout, Boy Scouts of America 10/2007

C.S. Lewis Institute Fellows Program 2018-2019