

Timothy Whitehouse

Professional Experience

Public Employees for Environmental Responsibility, Executive Director March 2019-Present

Lead organization dedicated to supports current and former public employees who seek a higher standard of environmental ethics and scientific integrity within their agencies.

Chesapeake Physicians for Social Responsibility, Executive Director May 2013-April 2019

Led in recruiting, training, and engaging healthcare professionals on legislative and policy issues. Work to strengthen the organization's fundraising, outreach, and administrative capacity.

Cyan Environmental Group, President September 2011-2018

Developed quality research and analysis, program development, training support, and facilitation services to clients interested in environmental, health, and trade issues.

Independent Consultant 2007-2011

Project management, training, facilitation, research, and writing for national and international clients on a variety of trade and environmental issues.

Commission on Environmental Cooperation, Head, Law and Policy Program 2002-2007

Directed the Law and Policy Program for an international environmental commission overseen by the United States, Canada, and Mexico.

United States Environmental Protection Agency, Attorney-Advisor 1992-2002

Provided legal and policy advice to EPA management on water, enforcement and compliance issues.

Education

Emory University - JD in Law, BA in History
New York University - MA in French Language and Civilization
