Doyon is a tribe within the meaning of NAHASDA for certain areas within the Doyon region. Beginning in 1998, Doyon has annually designated the Interior Regional Housing Authority (IRHA) as the Tribal Designated Housing Entity (TDHE) for the Doyon region. IRHA is a non-profit organization with authority derived from both state and federal law. IRHA was formed in 1974 along with thirteen other Alaskan housing authorities to administer programs of the U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development (HUD) throughout the state. IRHA serves the tribes of the Doyon region, encompassing remote traditional villages as well as Alaska's second largest city, Fairbanks.

In 2016 IRHA received approximately $4.5 million dollars in Indian Housing Block Grant funds from HUD as a result of Doyon's designation of IRHA as the TDHE for Interior Alaska.

IRHA provided funds to Interior communities including for programs supporting Canyon Village. These funds are not received directly by Doyon, nor are they managed by Doyon.
