

Robyn Sunday-Allen

Seasoned professional with experience in program planning, management, and evaluation with strong leadership abilities working in a variety of settings including direct patient care, prevention activities, administration, and the legislative arena.

Education

University of Oklahoma – Norman, OK
BA-Psychology, 1993

University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center – Oklahoma City, OK
BS-Nursing, 1995

University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center – Oklahoma City, OK
MPH-Health Administration and Policy, 2001

Professional Experience

Oklahoma City Indian Clinic – Oklahoma City, OK 2009-Present
Chief Executive Officer

- Plans, directs, coordinates, provides and improves health care services for American Indians in the Oklahoma City metropolitan area
- Analyzes complex administrative and operational programs and designs
- Implements policies established by the Central Oklahoma American Indian Health Council, Inc. and the Board of Directors
- Represents the Council and Board in community, professional and government relations
- Develops, implements, and maintains policies and procedure to guide and support patient care consistent with all state and federal standards and guidelines

Oklahoma City Indian Clinic – Oklahoma City, OK 2001-2009
Chief Operating Officer

- Responsible for managing the administrative and clinical demands and decisions for a non-profit entity including personnel and fiscal functions for 100 employees
- Serves as a representative to both the Oklahoma and National congressional staff, Indian tribes, private organizations and all other agencies
- Provides policy analysis and development
- Monitors all program activities including all grants and contracts
- Develops and coordinates all quality improvement projects

- Responsible for all aspects of the accreditation process with the Accreditation Association for Ambulatory Health Care, Inc.

Oklahoma City Indian Clinic – Oklahoma City, OK

1997-2001

Nurse Manager/Health Services Coordinator

- Provided direction, organization, and management of the medical department
- Maintained functional control and supervision over all nursing personnel
- Responsible for the development and implementation of the policies and procedures for the entire medical department
- Served as the administrative liaison to the Medical Director
- Coordinated appropriate measures and activities in developing, maintaining, and improving the quality of patient care

Oklahoma City Indian Clinic – Oklahoma City, OK

1995-1997

Registered Nurse/Nurse Manager

- Responsible for providing the highest possible quality care to all patients
- Ensured maximum staff utilization and coverage for the nursing department and overall supervision of the nursing staff
- Wrote and implemented the policy and procedure manual for the nursing department
- Coordinated and facilitated all nursing/medical meetings including activities between the medical department and all other departments
- Reviewed and resolved all patient complaints and incident reports for the medical department

Awards and other Activities

- Board of Advisors Greater Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce
- Board of Advisors University of Oklahoma College of Nursing
- Board of Directors Oklahoma State Chamber of Commerce
- Board of Directors Oklahoma Quality Foundation
- Board of Directors National Council of Urban Indian Health
- Tribal Public Health Advisory Committee for Oklahoma State Dept. of Health
- Oklahoma Health Improvement Plan Advisor
- Steering Committee Member Wellness Now Oklahoma City County Health Dept.
- Graduate Leadership Oklahoma City Class XXIX
- Graduate Leadership Oklahoma Class XXVI
- Member Rotary Club 29 Downtown Oklahoma City
- Indian Health Service Luana Reyes Leadership Award 2017
- Indian Health Service Lifetime Achievement Award 2016
- Langston University Women in Leadership Honoree 2016
- Indian Health Service Director's Special Recognition Urban Leadership Award 2013
- The Journal Record's 50 Making a Difference Honoree 2009, 2010, 2012.
- Awarded The Journal Record's Woman of the Year Circle of Excellence, 2012

- The Journal Record's Oklahoma's Most Admired CEO Honoree 2009, 2010, 2011. First honoree inducted into Circle of Excellence
- Oklahoma Proclamation from Gov. Brad Henry naming November 14 Robyn Sunday-Allen Day
- Zonta Club of Central Oklahoma Foundation, Inc. 2010 Woman of Achievement
- Outstanding Leadership Award, 2005 Oklahoma City Indian Clinic
- Outstanding Performance Award, 2006 Oklahoma City Indian Clinic