

Misty Napeahi

Vice Chair, Tulalip Tribes

Vice Chair Napeahi is currently in her second term and fourth year as an elected leader for the Tulalip Tribes. Misty has spent her career dedicated to the Tulalip Tribes. She brings twenty-three years of experience holding various positions at both the tribal government and the tribes' enterprises, including three years as the Tulalip Tribes General Manager managing all facets of the tribal government. She holds a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Columbia College. Napeahi enjoys serving her community and creating policies that provide equitable distribution of benefits to all tribal citizens. In her spare time, Napeahi enjoys spending time with her family, her husband Jay and their three children.