
EXPERIENCE

Self-Governance Communication & Education Tribal Consortium

Executive Director

July 2018 – present

- Led a national Tribal non-profit organization.
- Effectively served as organizational ambassador.
- Pursued new opportunities and partnerships to increase organizational impact.
- Developed innovative approaches to educate and share knowledge.
- Served as Executive Producer for SGCETC's original docuseries For Our People: Stories of Tribal Self-Governance and Sovereignty.

Arizona State University

Adjunct Faculty/ Professor

July 2021 - present

- Developed the curriculum, syllabus, assignments, lectures, and reference materials for two new courses—Tribal Self-Governance I and Tribal Self-Governance II—offered within the Sandra Day O'Connor School of Law's Indian Gaming and Self-Governance Program.
- Taught annual offerings of Tribal Self-Governance I and Tribal Self-Governance II.
- Worked closely with ASU colleagues to plan and execute training events for the broader ASU community.

U.S. Government Accountability Office

Senior Analyst

April 2005 - September 2018

- Led research projects and performance evaluations of numerous federal programs and activities to determine effectiveness and compliance with established criteria.
- Identified management and programmatic deficiencies hindering the effectiveness of federal programs, developed potential solutions for agencies and the Congress to consider, and monitored implementation of recommendations.
- Developed written testimony and prepared GAO witnesses for Congressional hearings.

EDUCATION

University of Tulsa

- + Master of Jurisprudence in Indian Law (2014)

University of Texas at Dallas

- + Master of Public Affairs (2005)
- + Bachelor of Arts in Geography (2003)