

Leannandra Ross, MPH

Vice President of Executive and Tribal Services

Leannandra Ross, MPH, is the Vice President of the Executive and Tribal Services division at Southcentral Foundation (SCF). In this role, she is responsible for the direction of SCF's corporate office and governance teams, as well as the government relations functions at SCF. She joined SCF in 1997 and has been a part of the development of the award-winning Nuka System of Care. She chairs the Operations committee, which provides leadership, coordination and oversight for operations and systemwide changes in operations, programs and activities. She is a co-creator and co-facilitator of SCF's innovative relationship-based Core Concepts Training Program. Leannandra is a life-long Alaskan, customer-owner, of Tlingit descent. She Eagle, Kaagwaantaan, and Sukteenadi Yadi, whose family originates from Prince of Wales Island.