

Antone C. “Tony” Greubel
Office Director

Antone “Tony” Greubel currently serves as the Director for the Office of Australia, New Zealand, and Pacific Islands in the Bureau of East Asian and Pacific Affairs at the U.S. Department of State. Tony previously served as the Diplomatic Fellow at the East-West Center in Honolulu, Hawaii from August 2023 to June 2024. He served as Deputy Chief of Mission at the United States Embassy in Suva beginning in March 2020, including a 22-month stint as Chargé d'affaires from January 2021 to November 2022, until he departed post in June 2023. Tony also served as the Deputy Chief of Mission/CDA at the United States Embassy in Apia, Samoa beginning in August 2017. From 2015-2017, Tony was the Senior Pacific Islands Desk Officer in the East Asia Pacific Bureau’s Office of Australia, New Zealand, and Pacific Islands Affairs. He managed bilateral relations with five Pacific Island Countries—Fiji, Tonga, Kiribati, Nauru, and Tuvalu. From 2012-2015, Tony served as American Citizens Services Unit Chief at the United States Embassy in Beijing. In this capacity, he was also responsible for providing consular services to American citizens in North Korea, in coordination with the Embassy of Sweden in Pyongyang. Earlier in his career, Tony served as consular section chief in Surabaya, Indonesia, and performed consular and diplomatic work in Ottawa, Canada and Lahore, Pakistan. He also worked as a management analyst in the State Department’s Bureau of Consular Affairs.

Prior to joining the Foreign Service, Tony worked as the Office Director for the Board of Commissioners in Vanderburgh County, Indiana and taught Political Science at the University of Southern Indiana as an adjunct faculty instructor. He received a bachelor’s degree in political science from the University of Southern Indiana and a master’s degree in Political Science from Indiana State University. He is married to Izumi Mochizuki Greubel of Shizuoka, Japan. They have two sons.