

Biographical Statement of Bryan Mercier

Director, Bureau of Indian Affairs

U.S. Department of the Interior

Bryan Mercier is an enrolled member of the Confederated Tribes of the Grand Ronde Community of Oregon. Prior to his appointment as Director for the Bureau of Indian Affairs on September 30, 2024, he served as the regional director of BIA's Northwest Region. He has spent 20 years working in public service, starting as a Morris K. Udall Foundation Intern and Mark O. Hatfield Fellow with Senator Gordon Smith of Oregon. He is an enrolled member of the Confederated Tribes of the Grand Ronde Community of Oregon.