

One Hundred Seventeenth Congress

Select Committee to Investigate the January 6th Attack on the United States Capitol

SELECT COMMITTEE ACTION

December 1, 2021

The Select Committee on the January 6th Attack on the United States Capitol met, pursuant to notice, in open session, a quorum being present, at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, December 1, 2021, in 390 Cannon House Office Building, to consider a Report on a Resolution Recommending that the House of Representatives Find Jeffrey Bossert Clark in Contempt of Congress for Refusal to Comply with a Subpoena Duly Issued by the Select Committee to Investigate the January 6th Attack on the United States Capitol.

After debate, Vice Chair CHENEY moved that the Committee favorably report to the House the Committee's Report on a Resolution Recommending that the House of Representatives Find Jeffrey Bossert Clark in Contempt of Congress for Refusal to Comply with a Subpoena Duly Issued by the Select Committee to Investigate the January 6th Attack on the United States Capitol.

Chairman THOMPSON put the question viva voce and announced that the ayes had it.

Vice Chair CHENEY requested a recorded vote, and so a recorded vote was ordered.

The question was decided in the affirmative by a recorded vote of 9 ayes to 0 noes (Rollcall No. 2), so the Report was ordered favorably reported.

Pursuant to clause 2(1) of rule XI, Vice Chair CHENEY requested that Members have 2 calendar days in which to file with the clerk of the Committee supplemental or additional views on the measure ordered reported by the Committee.

By unanimous consent, staff was authorized to make any necessary technical or conforming changes to the Report to reflect the actions of the Committee.

By unanimous consent, the Select Committee adjourned at 7:19 p.m.
