

Michael J Orlando

Mr. Orlando entered on duty as a Special Agent in the Pittsburgh Field Office in 2003 working counterintelligence matters. He has since worked on high priority counterintelligence matters at the Honolulu Field Office, as well as the Baltimore Field Office, and the Washington Field Office, where he most recently served as the Assistant Special Agent in Charge of Counterintelligence. Mr. Orlando also worked counterintelligence matters at FBI Headquarters as the Assistant Section Chief of East Asia Counterintelligence Investigations.

Mr. Orlando has recently worked in many capacities in the Counterterrorism Division at FBI Headquarters. He was instrumental in the creation of the Iran Threat Task Force as its Acting Section Chief. Mr. Orlando has since served as the Section Chief of the Foreign Threat Tracking Task Force and in April 2019 was named a Deputy Assistant Director in the Counterterrorism Division.

A native of New York, Mr. Orlando received his bachelor's degree in Economics and Management from the State University of New York, College at Cortland. In 2017, Mr. Orlando attended Georgetown University's McDonough School of Business and earned a Masters in Leadership. Prior to working for the FBI, Mr. Orlando was an officer in the U.S. Army.