1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

- 2 The Congress finds as follows:
- 3 (1) Since taking office, President Trump has 4 granted 36 pardons and commutations.
- 5 (2) President Trump has used his pardon 6 power to grant elemency to individuals who received 7 an unjust sentence or prosecution.
  - (3) On May 24, 2018, President Trump post-humously pardoned African-American boxer John Arthur "Jack" Johnson, who was convicted in 1913 on seven counts of violating the White Slave Traffic Act (Mann Act) by an all-white jury. Civil rights groups and advocates petitioned past presidents to "officially recognize that [Johnson's] prosecution and conviction embodied racial hostility and intolerance". When pardoning Johnson, President Trump stated, "[Johnson] had a conviction that occurred during a period of tremendous racial tension in the

| 1  | United States more than a century ago. Johnson         |
|----|--|
| 2  | served 10 months in federal prison for what many       |
| 3  | view as a racially motivated injustice. He was treat-  |
| 4  | ed very rough, very tough".                            |
| 5  | (4) On June 6, 2018, President Trump com-              |
| 6  | muted the life sentence of Alice Johnson, a first-time |
| 7  | offender who had already served 22-years for drug      |
| 8  | related offenses. In a press release, the White House  |
| 9  | noted that Alice Johnson had "accepted responsi-       |
| 10 | bility for her past behavior" and been a "model pris-  |
| 11 | oner". The release stated that, "[w]hile this Admin-   |
| 12 | istration will always be very tough on crime, it be-   |
| 13 | lieves that those who have paid their debt to society  |
| 14 | and worked hard to better themselves while in prison   |
| 15 | deserve a second chance".                              |
| 16 | (5) On February 18, 2020, President Trump              |
| 17 | commuted the sentences of three mothers, based         |
| 18 | upon the recommendation of their recently freed fel-   |
| 19 | low inmate Alice Johnson, as follows:                  |
| 20 | (A) At the time of her commutation,                    |
| 21 | Tynice Hall had already served 14 years of her         |
| 22 | 18-year sentence for a drug-related conviction.        |
| 23 | (B) Similarly, Crystal Munoz had been im-              |
| 24 | prisoned for 12 years for her "small role in a         |
| 25 | marijuana smuggling ring".                             |

| 1 | (C) Judith Negron received a 35-year pris-     |
|---|--|
| 2 | on sentence for her role in a healthcare fraud |
| 3 | scheme and had already served 8 years.         |
| 4 | (D) The White House stated the three           |
| 5 | women had "paid their debts to society and []  |
| 6 | worked to improve their lives and the lives of |
| 7 | others while incarcerated".                    |
